DETAILED ACTION

Claims 21,23,24,26,27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shammai et al.(2003/0066646)

As to claims 21,27, Shammai et al teach a method for down hole fluid sample collection comprising the steps of: inserting a pressurized nitrogen gas in the space 62 between a first 56 and second 54 piston located in a tube 34 with closed top end and open bottom end, the open bottom end attached to a plug 46; lowering the tube down hole; collecting a sample of "standing fluid within the wellbore" (Para 94) in chamber 60, between the enclosed top end and first piston; drawing second sample into chamber 64, involving expelling most of the first sample from chamber 60 (See Figure 5); raising the tube.

As to claim 21, some of the "standing fluid within the wellbore" will remain in chamber 60 when the tool is raised, and as that fluid is representative of the location from which it was taken, it is a sample as claimed.

As to claim 23, see Para 58.

As to claim 24, note tube 36.

As to claim 26, see Figure 4, where fluid is drawn into chamber 60 due to the DeltaP between chambers 60 and 62.

As to claim 25, note was made that further pressurization occurs (See Figure 1), that the sample in chamber 60 is not collected ("collecting" on line 1 of claim 25).

As to claim 25, "dowhole" (line 3) is misspelled.

Claim 25 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
